PGA Rated Golf Course in State College, PA

Rated as one of Pennsylvania's top places to play, our 4.5-star, 18-hole course challenges the skill of players at all levels. Established in 1968, the course at Toftrees Golf Resort was designed by nationally renowned golf course architect, Edmund "Ed" Ault. Our resort was recently 4 1/2 stars by Golf Digest magazine's "Places to Play" and named one of Pennsylvania's Best Resort/Public Golf Courses.

Toftrees Golf Resort is located just off Route 322 and I-99 in State College, Pennsylvania. We are just one exit from Penn State University, Beaver Stadium, and the Bryce Jordan Center. We are also located just three miles from University Park Airport.
